

Best Hotels in India for Halal Tourism

India is a popular destination with many travel attractions. The hotel Industry is thriving in India, and state-of-the-art facilities of hotels in India offer excellent value for money to tourists. Halal hotels can be easily found in India for accommodation befitting all the travelling needs of Muslim travellers. Muslim-friendly tourism in India is on the rise, and Muslim tourists can benefit from different halal packages provided by some of the best hotels in India.

India is a massive land dotted with various types of hotels serving different types of atmosphere and facilities to guests. Hotels that can be easily discovered in India are heritage hotels, luxury hotels, business-classified (budget) hotels, and resorts. Halal facilities are available in many hotels in India, ranging from cheap to luxury hotels in India. Muslim travellers should be vigilant about halal-friendly services and facilities when deciding to stay in an Indian hotel.

How to Find Halal Food and Places in India?

Muslim travellers looking for a halal hotel for accommodation in India should ensure that the hotel that they choose to stay at meets the following halal-friendly requirements:

- Halal food is served with certification from an erudite halal authority.
- The direction of Qibla is mentioned in the room.
- The hotel has a prayer hall or a Masjid/Mosque on the premises.
- Prayer timings and a list of halal restaurants or Masjids are available on request.
- Ramadan-related services are offered.
- The Quran is available in a room.
- Halal medical facilities for check-ups and treatments are available.
- The privacy of Muslim women is guarded earnestly.

Main Attractions to Visit in India

Muslim and Non-Muslim tourists from around the world come to India to explore its famous sites. Three pilgrimage destinations for Muslims who may decide to travel to India are: The Hazratbal Shrine in Jammu and Kashmir, Ajmer Sharif in Ajmer, Rajasthan, and Haji

Ali Dargah. Destinations with natural attractions are Kashmir (especially in winter), Goa (for exotic beaches), Kanyakumari (for spectacular sunsets), and Kerala (for Kerala backwaters). It is recommended that Muslim travellers find halal hotels in India near these places to have a memorable travel experience.

Muslim travellers coming to India should either book a halal-friendly resort or heritage hotel if they plan to stay in Jaipur, Udaipur, Aurangabad, Delhi, or Mysore. Jaipur and Udaipur represent the rich culture and artistic traditions of Rajasthan, while the Ajanta Caves in Aurangabad portray the rich heritage of India. Delhi has mesmerizing and beautiful sites, Mysore is known for palaces, and Darjeeling has some of the most popular hill resorts in India.

Best Indian Cuisines

Indian cuisine is liked and eaten around the world. Some of the most popular Indian dishes are Biryani, Butter Chicken, Tandoori Chicken, Palak Paneer, Chole-Bhatore, Dal Makhani, Malai Kofta, Indo-Chinese Manchurian, Tomato Rasam Soup, Pani Puri – Chaats, and Idli – Dosa – Vada with Sambar. These dishes are served in the top hotels in India and restaurants.